UNWANTED!

EMERALD ASH BORER

Emerald Ash Borer

Healthy ash tree

The borer prefers white, green, blue and black ash, but not mountain ash.

Sick ash trees

S-shaped galleries

Ash bark

Ash leaf

White ash seeds

Actual size

Other insects that are mistaken for emerald ash borer:

Banded Ash Borer

Japanese Beetle

Six-spotted Tiger Beetle

If seen, call the Michigan Department of Agriculture EAB hotline:

1-866-325-0023

www.emeraldashborer.info

Produced by:

Michigan State University Extension
Michigan Department of Natural Resources
USDA Forest Service
Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity institution.

E·3004, New, August 2003

UNWANTED!

EMERALD ASH BORER

Emerald
Ash Borer

If seen, call the
Michigan Department of Agriculture EAB Hotline:
1-866-325-0023
www.emeraldashborer.info

Produced by:
Michigan State University Extension
Michigan Department of Natural Resources
USDA Forest Service
Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station

New 8:03 - 30M - LP, Free