

Learn about the Aug. 6 election

Voters in Bloomfield Township will go to the polls on Aug. 6 to consider a proposal to establish a Public Safety Special Assessment District (SAD).

Learn about the Public Safety SAD and what impact it would have on the community. Residents are encouraged to attend one of the following Town Hall meetings on the ballot proposal hosted by Leo Savoie, Township Supervisor.

Where: Bloomfield Township Senior Center, 4315 Andover Rd.
Thursday, May 16 @ 1:30 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.
Monday, June 17 @ 9:30 a.m.

Where: Bloomfield Township Hall- Auditorium, 4200 Telegraph Rd.
Wednesday, May 29 @ 3:00 p.m.
Thursday, June 27 @ 7:00 p.m.
Wednesday, July 10 @ 3:00 p.m.
Wednesday, July 31 @ 7:00 p.m.

The discussion will cover the Special Assessment District, the new state law that changed retirement funding requirements, cost-cutting moves implemented by the Township in recent years, how much taxpayers will pay if the Public Safety proposal is approved, the impact if it passes or fails, and much more. The meetings will be an open forum of questions and answers.

To find out more about the Public Safety SAD and the Aug. 6 election, go to the Township website, www.bloomfieldtwp.org, and click on "August Election Facts" on the left side of the home page under "Township News." That will take you to the page with a full range of election information.

Watch for more information in the Township eNewsletter and on social media platforms, including Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Scan to Follow Us!

