Day Trip Evolution
Our patrons are busy! This summer we are testing variations to our trips; later departures, half day trips and new tour providers. Later departure times open opportunities for those active in morning programs. Half day trips are for those who may not have entire day free for these wonderful destinations. We also have a new partnership with Detroit History Tours so check out tours for historic foods, cops and mobsters and the exciting Tall Ships in Detroit! Visit Shinola, Pewabic and the Plymouth Art in the Park and more (pages 10-13).

Join us for an adventure!

BT Fire Department

What if I need help but it is not a “real” emergency?

The answer is easy.

Our motto is: When in doubt, call us out. From assisting a citizen who is uninjured up off the floor to issues involving smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, the Fire Department is available to assist you.

What number do I call for non-emergency help?

The FD non-emergency number is 248-433-7745.

If someone cannot remember this number, dial 9-1-1 and the dispatcher will assist you with the connection.

For more information, go to www.btfdfire.org or 248-433-7745 and call us out.

Please pre-register to prevent class cancellations.

We will traverse the city and learn the history of speakeasies and some of their most memorable raids. From riots to rolling men into the river, from African American gambling rackets to Italian mobsters fixing professional football games, to cops, mounted police, and mayors of all types - welcome to the criminal side. Odd, ethnic, icy cold, steaming hot, generationally produced by the families who’ve owned their shops for decades. Visit 3 of Detroit’s “cash only,” open 24 hours, diner style, counter service joints. Together we’ll sample the steaming hot glazed treats of a late night bakery that uses over 2000 pounds of raisins a year. Meet the owners, sample the food, and learn why the recipes have endured. Your guides will share the history of iconic Detroit foods, from branding to production, and you’ll leave full from a lunch like no other in a city like none other. ### Performances

“Oklahoma” – Stagecrafters
Thursday, May 30
5:15 – 10:15 PM
Oklahoma, is classic Broadway at its best. The first collaboration of brilliant songwriters Rodgers & Hammerstein, this beloved play set the conventions of musical theatre that are still in use today. The story opens in the Oklahoma territory just after the turn of the century, when farm girl Laurey meets Curly, a handsome cowboy, sparks fly and a rocky road to romance begins. Begin with dinner on your own at Lily’s Seafood Grill.  Fee: $49

DSO The Wonderful Music of Oz
Friday, June 14
9:30 – 3:30 PM
Defy gravity and follow the yellow brick road on a musical journey over the rainbow. Frank Baum’s classic novel, “The Wonderful Wizard of Oz,” took the world by storm, and for over one hundred years has inspired storytellers and composers on Broadway (WICKED, THE WIZ), in Hollywood (The Wizard of Oz, Return to Oz) and on the radio (“Goodbye Yellow Brick Road”). Relive all the Wonderful Music of Oz based on the original tale in one magical concert event. Followed by lunch on your own at Bahama Breeze.  Fee: $70

“The IT Girl” – Meadow Brook
Wednesday, June 19
11:30 – 4:45 PM
A lighthearted tribute to silent movies and Clara Bow that reinvents her 1927 Paramount Picture IT. Betty is a sassy department store sales clerk who wins an advertising contest held to find the girl with the elusive, thrilling quality known as “IT”. Among those she enchants with sexy charm is the heir to the retail empire that employs her. Begin with lunch on your own at Alfocci Italian.  Fee: $58

Purple Rose “Welcome to Paradise”
Wednesday, July 17
11 - 6:30 PM
Welcome to Paradise, set in the Caribbean, centers around two people, who, despite their age difference, find love and acceptance in each other. With a generation gap (or more) between them, they discover they have more in common with each other than they thought. At what age can one find one’s soul mate? Are there boundaries to true friendship and affection? What, exactly, is the meaning and nature of love? Lunch on your own at the Common Grill prior to the show.  Fee: $59

Tipping Point “Anatomy of a Hug”
Saturday, August 24
2 - 5:30 PM
The one constant in Amelia’s life has always been TV. Growing up in different foster homes, it was a comfort to know she always had a makeshift family waiting for her on the screen. Now in her 30’s, Amelia continues to escape her daily life with the help of TV. When her estranged mother moves in, she is forced to make an actual human connection. Anatomy of a Hug is a touching story of finding a way to forgive, even when it seems impossible. No meal stop.  Fee: $43

Tall Ships in Detroit
Wednesday, September 11  1:30 - 7 PM
Meet the Captain and crew as you board the 85 ft. Appledore IV with a 76 ft. mast and over 3,500 square feet of sails. Depart from the Port of Detroit and sail up the river past the Ambassador Bridge while hearing the history of skyscrapers, wars, tall ships on Michigan waters and hiding spots of mischief makers. With the crew you’ll raise the mainsail, cut through the waves, glide past Belle Isle and the Livingstone Lighthouse. After a few turning maneuvers on Lake Saint Clair, you’ll sail back to port with a set of once in a lifetime memories. The ship sails in all types of weather and we highly recommend a good pair of shoes and weather appropriate clothing, including a jacket or windbreaker. Rain, wind, choppy seas, or invading Canadians will not cancel a sail. Enjoy a light Detroit snack along with water and pop on board the ship.
Fee: $104

Sat, June 8  9:30 – 2:30 PM
Come celebrate the 124th anniversary of the elegant historic neighborhood.
