Bloomfield Township Trustees Seek Candidates for Open Alternate Position on Zoning Board of Appeals

The Bloomfield Township Board of Trustees is seeking qualified candidates to fill a vacant position for an alternate on the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The Zoning Board of Appeals considers requests for relief from strict compliance from the Zoning Ordinance regulations, and other specified requests. It meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. The alternate serves as needed in the absence of a regular member. The open term for the ZBA expires January 1, 2023.

To be considered, a person must be a Township elector, 18 years of age or older, who is a U.S. citizen and has lived at least 30 days in Bloomfield Township. The applicant must write a letter of interest and submit a current resume. The Board will review and consider information from all applicants and make a selection.

The letter of interest and resume must be submitted to the Township Supervisor's Office by 5:30 p.m., Thursday, February 13, 2020. The Office, located at 4200 Telegraph Road, is open between 7:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday. It is closed on Fridays. The phone number is 248.433.7708. The documents may also be emailed to PRaymo@bloomfieldtwp.org.
