No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal Estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line as well as columns from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be valued in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any reassessment with Real Estate in the column of taxes to which it belongs. Assessments must be made that they are so assessed. The special valuation of Subscribers is attached to the pamphlet of maps for each year. The reassessment must be made. Two or more City or Village lots owned and occupied in one township, under Sec. 4, Chap. 27, Revised Statutes, should be put in the blank column next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Addison, General's Office, January, 1853.

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or traced on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal Estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one, and in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this Roll is used, and in the column for "Remarks," state opposite each parcel for what year the same is assessed. City or Village lots owned and occupied as one parcel, but the land must be noted that they are so occupied. The special individual of school taxes is directed to the proprietor of the land, or the number General during the last year. Where any land, highway tax is valued in any township, under Sec. 4, Chap. 27, Revised Statutes, it should be put with the other taxes for township purposes, in the column of taxes, County and Town. Any special tax not specified in Sec. 34, Chap. 29, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the third column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Section 3, Statute of 1853.

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued on the same line. The descriptions must be filled in each valuation of tax. Personal Estate must be valued and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column from Real Estate. Non-resident land must be entered in numerical order, not in alphabetical order. The value of any real-estate shall be the value in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which this roll is used, and in the column for "Remarks," state opposite each parcel for purposes of the Auditor General during the last year. Where any land owned and occupied as one parcel, may be assessed as one parcel, but the fact must be noted that they are so occupied. The special attention of Supervisors is directed to the parallel of "State, County and Town and Tax." Any special tax not specified in Sec. 34, Chap. 10, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns there mentioned, may be put in the blank column, next to the one headed "Total of Taxes." - Attorney General's Office, January, 1853.

I do hereby certify that I have set down in the above Assessment Roll all the Real Estate in the Township of Bloomfield, liable to be taxed, according to my best information, and that I have estimated the same at what I believe to be the true Cash Value thereof; that the said Assessment Roll contained a true statement of the Aggregate Valuation of the Taxable Personal Estate of each and every person named in said Roll, and that I have estimated the same at its true Cash Value, according to my best information and belief.

Henry W. Fiske
 Supervisor
 of Township of Bloomfield

Dated at Bloomfield this 2^d
 21st day of May A.D. 1853

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line. Two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal Estate must be valued and taxed as well as column from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any re-assessment made in the column for the year for which this Roll is used, and in the column for "Remarks" state opposite each parcel for what year the re-assessment was made. Two or more parcels may be assessed as one parcel. The fact must be noted that they are so occupied. The special valuation of Shareholders is directed to the pamphlet of the Laws compiled by the Auditor General during the year 1852, and in any township under Sec. 4, Chap. 27, Revised Statutes, it should be put with the other taxes for township purposes, in the column headed "State County and Town Ship Tax". Any special tax not specified in Sec. 34, Chap. 27, Revised Statutes, and required to be put in one of the three columns then mentioned, may be put in the blank column next to the one headed "Personal Estate".
